

Agency Funding

Center for Human Services acknowledges the support of our funding partners who underwrite, in part, the quality services provided to children and families. Partners include, but are not limited to: Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors, Behavioral Health and Recovery Services, Children and Families Commission, Community Services Agency, Probation, United Way, various school districts, foundations, Federal and State agencies. We are grateful to all of our funders for fostering the health and well-being of our communities through their support of Center for Human Services' prevention, intervention, counseling and shelter services.

Agency Information

MISSION

The mission of Center for Human Services is: To change lives and build futures through programs that strengthen and support youth and families.

VISION

Center for Human Services (CHS) will be a leader in advocacy and services for youth and families working with partners to build a strong community.

VALUES

- Integrity
- Results
- Partnerships
- Innovation
- Responsiveness
- Respect

HISTORY

CHS began in 1970 through the efforts of a dedicated group of volunteers. Originally the agency focused on youth drug abusers and runaways. Over the years, CHS has grown to become one of the largest youth and family agencies in our area. CHS is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Our Federal Tax Payer ID is #94-1725620.
